In accordance with Article 11 of the decision of the Translation Centre laying down general implementing provisions on the procedure governing the engagement and use of temporary staff under Article 2(f), the Translation Centre is organising a selection procedure to establish a reserve list¹ for the recruitment of temporary staff² as translators with Lithuanian as principal language ("principal language" means mother tongue or a language of which the applicants have an equivalent command). Their duties will include the translation of texts from English and other official languages of the European Union into Lithuanian and the revision of texts translated by external contractors into Lithuanian.

- knowledge of Computer Aided Translation tools;

B. SELECTION PROCEDURE:

(1) PRESELECTION STAGE:

The preselection stage will be carried out in two parts:

- The first part will be based on the eligibility criteria mentioned in point A(1), and is intended to establish whether the applicant meets all the mandatory eligibility criteria and all formal requirements laid down in the application procedure. Applicants who do not do so will be rejected.
- The second part will take into consideration professional experience and the “Specific competencies and skills” indicated in point A(2). This part will be marked on a scale from 0 to 20 (pass mark: 10).

The Selection Committee will invite to the selection stage the 20 applicants who have passed and obtained the highest scores in the pre-selection stage.

(2) SELECTION STAGE:

The selection stage will consist of two parts:

- (a) A written test consisting of:
 - (i) a translation from English (language 2) into Lithuanian (the use of non-electronic dictionaries to be brought to the test by the applicants is allowed) of a text of approximately 25 lines to assess applicants’ general aptitudes and language skills to the extent necessary for the performance of their duties, and the specific competencies with reference to their profiles. Time allowed: 1 hour.
 - (ii) a translation from German or French (language 3) into Lithuanian (the use of non-electronic dictionaries to be brought to the test by the applicants is allowed) of a text of approximately 25 lines to assess applicants’ general aptitudes and language skills to the extent necessary for the performance of their duties, and the specific competencies with reference to their profiles. Time allowed: 1 hour.
 - (iii) a revision of a text translated from English (language 2) into Lithuanian (of approximately 25 lines, the use of non-electronic dictionaries to be brought to the test by the applicants is allowed) to assess applicants’ general aptitudes and language skills to the extent necessary for the performance of their duties, and the specific competencies with reference to their profiles. Time allowed: 30 minutes.

Each written test will be marked out of 20 (pass mark: 12).

If an applicant fails test (i), tests (ii) and (iii) will not be marked. If an applicant passes test (i) but fails test (ii), test (iii) will not be marked.

- (b) An interview with the Selection Committee to assess applicants' suitability to carry out the duties described above. The interview will also focus on applicants' specialist knowledge and their ability to work in a multicultural environment. Time allowed: 45 minutes.

Please note that only applicants who have passed the written test will be invited for an interview.

The interview will be conducted for the most part in English. Other languages may be tested according to the declaration on the knowledge of languages made by the candidates.

The interview will be marked out of 20 (pass mark: 12).

The written test and the interview will take place in Luxembourg or remotely. Applicants invited to sit the tests will receive all the relevant information in due course.

Those applicants who are invited to the tests must submit, at the latest on the day of the interview, the relevant supporting documents corresponding to the information entered on the application form, namely copies of diplomas, proof of nationality, certificates and other supporting documents proving their qualifications and professional experience and clearly showing start and end dates, the position held and exact nature of their duties, etc. If the tests are held remotely, applicants may send a copy of the supporting documents requested above by email to E-Selection@cdt.europa.eu.

Once the written tests and the interviews have been marked, the Selection Committee will draw up a reserve list with the successful applicants in alphabetical order. Successful applicants are the applicants who obtained both the aggregate pass mark in the written test and the pass mark in the interview (see points 2(a) and 2(b) above). Applicants should note that inclusion on a reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.

Before establishing the reserve list, the Selection Committee will analyse the supporting documents of the candidates who passed the interview and the written test.

Furthermore, before a contract can be concluded, the selected applicants will have to provide the originals and certified copies of all relevant documents proving that they meet the eligibility criteria.

If, at any stage in the selection or recruitment procedure, it is discovered that the information given in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified.

Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria at the closing for applications;
- fail to provide the required supporting documents.

The reserve list will be valid until 31.12.2023 and may be extended at the discretion of the Translation Centre's Authority authorised to conclude contracts of employment.

C. RECRUITMENT:

Depending on the budgetary situation, successful applicants may be offered a three-year contract (renewable) in accordance with the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union. Subject to the level of confidentiality of the work carried out, the selected applicant may be required to apply for security clearance.

The selected applicants will be recruited in the grade AD 5. The basic monthly salary for the grade AD 5 (step 1) is EUR 5.361,87. In addition to the basic salary, members of staff may be entitled to various allowances, such as a household allowance, an expatriation allowance (16% of basic salary), etc.

In addition, in order to be eligible and before being appointed, the selected applicant must:

- have fulfilled any obligations imposed on them by the law concerning military service;
- meet the character requirements for the duties involved (enjoy full rights as a citizen)⁵;
- undergo a medical examination arranged by the Translation Centre in order to satisfy the requirements of Article 12 (2) of Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union.

D. APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

Interested applicants must complete their online application in Systal (https://aa251.referrals.selectminds.com/?lset=en_US) within the deadline.

We strongly advise applicants not to wait until the last few days to apply. Experience has shown that the system may become overloaded closer to the deadline for applications. It may therefore prove difficult to apply in time.
