2. ADMISSION TO THE COMPETITION

Applicants should submit their application through Systal (https://aa251.referrals.selectminds.com/?!set=en_US&sso_oif=true)¹ before the closing date for submission of applications. Applications will therefore be rejected at this stage if they:

- are sent after the deadline,
- are not submitted through Systal
- do not contain all the supporting documents of proof of career, education and experience in relation to the tasks listed in the job description attached in Systal

The Selection Committee will examine the applications and draw up a list of candidates who meet all the conditions in point 1. These candidates will then be admitted to the tests.

Candidates will be informed individually of the Selection Committee's decision regarding their admission to the tests.

3. REVIEW OF APPLICATIONS

Applicants who are unsuccessful may request that their applications be reviewed. To do this they must send a letter to the Chair of the Selection Committee, stating their case, within 10 working days of the date of dispatch of the letter notifying them of the decision.

ORAL TEST

A. Admission to the oral test

All candidates who meet the requirements set under point I are admitted to an oral test.

B. Nature and duration of the oral test

The oral test consists of an interview with the Selection Committee intended to assess candidates' suitability to perform at AD level the duties mentioned in Annex 1 and the domain of the post. This assessment will be based on the candidates' ability in verbal expression, reasoning and management skills. During the interview, the Selection Committee may wish to verify statements made by candidates, particularly with regard to their diplomas, professional references and the skills required.

To complete their assessment of candidates' suitability for such posts, the Selection Committee will also consider the information furnished by candidates, looking in particular at their experience in relation to the tasks listed in the job description, training courses or any other information candidates wish to put forward in support of their application. All the supporting documents (certificates, diplomas, employment contracts, language certificates, references etc.) need to be attached to the candidate's application in Systal, in PDF form only, before the closing date for submission of applications. The PDF documents need to be combined by category and clearly named – Certificates, Diplomas, Employment, References etc. with the candidate's initials i.e., Employment-P.G.pdf)

The Selection Committee will decide on the time allowed for the oral test, and inform the candidates accordingly when they are invited to attend the oral test.

The oral test will take place on the date stated in the invitation letter. However, in exceptional circumstances the Selection Committee may accept a change of date at the candidate's request, provided that this does not disrupt the competition process.

2. Marks for the oral test

The oral test will be marked out of 20 (pass mark: 12).

The interview will be conducted for the most part in English and in French. Other languages may be tested according to the declaration on the knowledge of languages made by the candidates.

5. RESERVE LIST

The Selection Committee will include on the reserve list all those candidates who obtain the pass mark in the oral test. The reserve list will be drawn up in order of merit.

The Appointing Authority (AA) will select candidates from the reserve list to be appointed as officials to the posts for which the competition is held, as and when posts become available in the establishment plan. The reserve list will be valid until 31 December 2026 and may then be extended.

6. HOW TO APPLY

Interested applicants must complete their online application in Systal (https://aa251.referrals.selectminds.com/?lset=en_US&ssso_oif=true) by 7 June 2026 (23.59) at the latest.

7. APPOINTMENT

Candidates placed on the reserve list will be eligible only for appointment as probationary officials (AD8). The classification will be fixed according to general implementing provisions concerning the criteria applicable to classification in grade and step on appointment or engagement.

Candidates who are successful in this competition must have, on the date they are appointed, active status² at the Translation Centre.

The recruitment will be based on statutory provisions and budgetary availabilities.

Under Article 29(1)(b) of the Staff Regulations officials may request a transfer at any time during their career to another institution or agency. However, candidates' attention is drawn to the fact that, in the interests of the service, newly recruited officials are transferred only in exceptional and duly justified cases during their first four years of service. Any such transfer is subject to the agreement of institution or agency that originally recruited the official and the institution or agency to which the official requests to be transferred.

8. GENERAL INFORMATION

A. REVIEW – APPEAL – COMPLAINTS

Candidates who consider that they have grounds for complaint concerning a particular decision may, at any point in the competition, request further details regarding said decision from the Chair of the Selection Board, instigate an appeal procedure or file a complaint with the European Ombudsman (see Annex 2).

B. REQUESTS FROM CANDIDATES FOR ACCESS TO INFORMATION CONCERNING THEM

Candidates involved in an internal competition have the specific right of access to certain information concerning them directly and individually. Candidates who so request may accordingly be provided with supplementary information relating to their participation in the internal competition. Candidates must send such requests in writing to the Chair of the Selection Board. The answer will be sent within one month. Requests will be dealt with taking account of the confidential nature of the Selection Board proceedings under the Staff Regulations (Annex III, Article 6).

C. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

The Translation Centre (as the body responsible for organising the internal competition) will ensure that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

Please see the specific privacy notice.

² have one of the following administrative statuses: 'active' employment, leave for military service, parental leave or family leave, 'secondment in the interests of the service' or 'seconded at own request', in accordance with Article 35 et seq. of the Staff Regulations.
